

Laurie Homuth

Music for Tots™ Teacher

Laura S. Homuth earned a BA from Trinity International University in 2002. Her major is music with an emphasis in Church Music. Laura holds a MA from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, 2009 with a degree in Counseling Ministries. In 2002 she served in many capacities through a Church Music Internship; sang with and conducted a small vocal ensemble and orchestra, rehearsed a youth choir and planned music for weekly services. From 2004 -2009 Laura was School of Music Administrator/Coordinator for Trinity College. Since 2008 she teaches private flute lessons. As a mother she attended Music for Tots™ classes with her children and in 2014 taught Music for Tots™ classes. Laura has taught private piano lessons, performed flute with various ensembles and as a soloist. Presently Laura generously serves her Church as instrumental musician, leader, teacher and director of music groups.
