

Lauren Kristoff received her Bachelor's degree in Music Liberal Arts from St. Norbert College in 2014. Since then, she has taught private voice and piano lessons. She has also accompanied voice and instrumental students at St. Norbert College. She also plays piano and cantors every Sunday for Mass. Currently, she is in her 2nd year of teaching choir at Roncalli High School. Lauren also has some band experience and can teach beginning alto saxophone, clarinet, and bassoon lessons. Throughout the summer Lauren sings in St. Norbert College's Dudley Birder Chorale and plays piano and percussion in the Green Bay Civic Symphony.
