

Heidi Barker is a Milwaukee based violinist and teacher who loves using music to build community and kindle creative thinking. Since completing her master's studies in String Pedagogy and Chamber Music performance she has taught with a wide variety of music programs. Her passion for sharing music has led her to participate in concerts, workshops, and internships both as a performer and as a teacher through partnerships with non-profit organizations in Haiti, Tasmania, France, and the United States.

