

Rosalindae Siegfried, Harpist

Rosalindae Siegfried lives in Green Bay and is a senior at UWGB working towards a BFA in Writing and Applied Arts and a BA in English. Harp has been her passion for the last 18 years, studying with Sr. Marsaia, Anne LaBotsky, and Tammy Kazmierczak. She has had hospice training and has played for weddings and social gatherings. She has performed as guest principal for the East Appleton High School orchestra, and UWO - Fox Cities and Sheboygan symphonies. Teaching others to play is how she shares her love for the harp, celebrating its unique sound and beauty.
