In 2013 Sister Carol Ann became the Administrator of Holy Family Conservatory of Music and teacher of private lessons. In 2021 she became the Administrator of the Franciscan Center for Music Education and Performance which includes overseeing the Conservatory. Sister Carol Ann loves to teach students of all ages on instruments that include piano, woodwind and brass instruments particularly the French horn. She enjoys performing horn in Wind Ensembles. As a church musician she often plays the organ, piano and flute at many liturgies.

During Sister Carol Ann's free time her favorite activities are to create home-made cards, cook, bake, or watch detective mysteries. Her ability to guide, encourage and assist others to make steady progress is appreciated by parents and students alike. Sister Carol Ann's greatest joy is to help her students to become a caring person through the power of music.
