Sister Mary Carol taught music in Catholic Parochial Schools for forty years. During this time she worked with Katinka Daniel and the Kodaly curriculum in Santa Barbara, California. She taught in schools in Michigan, Wisconsin and California. Most schools combined classroom teaching with instrumental band music, private lessons and Church music. For thirteen years Sister Mary Carol was an Instructor of Music and Director of an accomplished Recorder Ensemble at Silver Lake College Manitowoc, Wisconsin. She is the author of four music books: Folk Songs In the Classroom; Learning The Soprano Recorder Through Folksong, Recorder In Ensemble and Christmas Plays For The Classroom Teacher. Sister has enjoyed teaching private lessons at Holy Family Conservatory of Music since 1999. In her spare time Sister loves to read mysteries, biographies and music books.
