

Julie Koenig

Julie Koenig holds a Master of Music degree with Kodaly emphasis and a Bachelor of Music degree in instrumental, general, and vocal music education from Silver Lake College of the Holy Family. Ms. Koenig has taught in the Music for Tots™ Program at Holy Family Conservatory for many years. She is also Director of Liturgical Music and accompanist at St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Community in Newton, WI and MCM United in Manitowoc. Ms. Koenig has previously taught general music K-8; and middle through high school choral and instrumental music in the Valders School District where she also served as an accompanist. She enjoys a long association with the Holy Family Conservatory taking music lessons there as a child, and she has passed this tradition on to her children who were instructed at the Conservatory as well. Both of her children have also been enrolled in the Music for Tots™ Program beginning with Sister Lorna Zemke's Lovenotes, Music for the Unborn.
